Hughes Makes Ten Specches.

The New York State campaign did not end until well toward midnight to-night, Governor Charles E. Hughes making ten speeches in Greater New York during the day and evening. His fremocratic opponent, Lieutenant-Governor Lewis S. Chanler, spent the day in his home county of Dutchess, and made a number of speeches to his neighbors.

The puzzle as to the outcome of the

made a number of speeches to his heighbors.

The puzzle as to the outcome of the State contest was apparently no nearer solution to-night than at the beginning of the campaign, and both sides are claiming the State by overwhelming majorities. At Democratic State head-quarters confidence was expressed that New York would go for Bryan and vern and Chanler.

Chairman Woodruff of the State Republican committee, said to-night; "I welleve that Taft and Hughes will win by substantial pluralities."

Defection in Wyoming.

CHEYENNE, WYO., November 2.—
Republican forecasts indicate that Taft will carry Wyoming by 50,600, a reduction of over one-half from Rooseveit's majority four years ago. The emocratic leaders are hopeful that the Republican defection will prove rufficient to give the State to Bryan.

ing Republican victory in State and nation to-morrow. James S. Sherman, Republican cardidate for Vice-President, closed the campaign here to-night, speaking at two meetings, where his reception was only equaled by the enthusiasm displayed at the mention of Governor Hughes's name.

"I have no unkind word for Mr. Bryan; he is a good Christian gentleman who practices what he preaches, but if called upon to act on national policies or national france, would he not then practice what he has been preaching for twelve years?"

Referring to the State situation, Mr. Sherman, after stating that Governor Hughes's record in office has elevated his moral tone of the entire State, said:

"Not to elect him is to tell the whole country we do not know a good thing. But we are going to keep him. We are going down to the Harlem Bridge to-morrow might with 170,000 majority, and I precibed that all the coherts of Tammany Hall, with all their schemes for subverting the people's will, cannot overcome it."
